

Instructions

1. Student to complete Section 1 and ensure the eligibility requirements are met and supporting documents are provided.
2. Please submit all supporting documents in accordance with the eligibility criteria.
3. Provide accurate and verifiable information. Incomplete applications may be disqualified.
4. Student must retain a minimum cGPA of 3.5 and satisfactory disciplinary standing throughout the master's program to retain the award.
5. Application can be submitted any time after receiving the full or conditional acceptance letter, including after the program has commenced.
6. Financial incentives follow UDST's Teaching Assistant (TA) policy, procedures, and guidelines.
7. Submission does not guarantee award. Selection is competitive and subject to GSU committee decisions.
8. Only one award can be availed at a given time. Upon acceptance, a Graduate Teaching Assistantship (GTA) takes precedence over a tuition waiver and supersedes it.
